DERWENT ENTERTAINMENT CENTRE, GLENORCHY

Saturday 30th & Sunday 31st August, 2008 | Open Saturday 9am-5pm & Sunday 9am-4pm

HIA is holding the Building & Renovation Expo on the 30th & 31st August, 2008 at the Derwent Entertainment Centre, Glenorchy.

There will be exhibitions including kitchens & bathrooms, working demonstrations and much much more. This Expo will provide endless ideas and contacts for anyone interested in home building or renovating.

For consumer to enter the Expo it will be $5 for adults, children under 13 are free.

This cost will remain the same as 2006 and will raise much needed funds for YouthBUILD a HIA initiative to address the skills shortage in the Building Industry.

Print, television and radio advertising will promote the Expo extensively, 3 weeks prior to the event.

Preference will be given to working demonstrations or displays. We would encourage you to take some time with your display to create something different or that stands out from the rest. Based on current interest exhibitor places will fill quickly so don't miss this fantastic cost effective marketing opportunity.
